Notes

The Vital records of Simsbury, CT, show the marriage of the first "Edmund Edmans" of Great Britain to Hannah Addams of Salisbury, on August 24, 1718. Edmund and Hannah moved to Salisbury, CT, where Edmund died in 1759. The following was copied from the Sharon Probate Records:

Alle Court of Probate holden at Sharon for the District of Sharon, this 11th day of September 1759 present John Williams Esq., Judge holding ye Same. This Court granted administration on ye Estate of Edmund Edmonds late of Salisbury in the district declared unto Edmond Edmonds of ye Oblong in Dutchess County who gave bonds with Surety of five hundred pounds lawful money for his faithful Administration on said Estate according to law and took out letters of Administration this day.

At a Court of Probate holden at Sharon for Sharon district this 17th day of November 1761 present John Williams Esq. Judge holding the same then as above administrator exhibited an Inventory of the Estate of said deceased under Oath which was accepted and ordered to be recorded and kept on file which is as follows, viz. An Inventory of the Estate of Edmond Edmonds, late of Salisbury, deceased taken by ye subscriber under oath.....goes on with an interesting inventory.

This is all taken from the Kemble Stout genealogy of Zephaniah Edmonds.

Date of death then would be before September 11, 1759.....

Also found: "Administration on the estate of Edmund Edunds of Salisbury, CT, was granted to Edmund Edmonds of Oblong, Dutchess Co., N.Y, Sept. 11, 1759. inventory Nov. 2 by Ebenezer Stevens and Philip Chatfield (Sharon Probate Records)

.....
Some of this information was taken from the Family Group Sheet compiled by Anita Hyatt Davis. Her list of sources for this family is as follows:

According to the records (above) of the Moravian Historical Society, the members of the Edmonds family belonged to the Moravian Church in Sichern. Sichern was located in Dutchess County near the Connecticut border. This was within the area known as the "Oblong", a strip of land less than 2 miles wide. The church records indicate the Edmonds family was living on rented land. In October 1771 Edmund and his family moved to "Gnadenhutten on the Mahoning", another Moravian Settlement which was located near Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. A German dictionary gives the translation of Gnadenhutten as "Tents of Peace". During the first year they lived in the barracks at Fort Allen, built by men of the militia, under the command of Benjamin Franklin. Edmund's occupation was given as miner and dish turner. A later reference in the PA archives gives his occupation as "artificer" (Dictionary definition, a skillful or artistic worker; craftsman).

1785.....Federal tax list for Northampton County, Penn Township, shows Edmund Edmonds with 50 acres of land, 1 horse and 2 cattle.
His tax was 5 shillings.

1790 census for Northampton Co., PA, shows the family living in Penn township.

1 male over 16, 1 male under 16, 2 females

Baptisms and Christenings and other dates and names are from the Family Group Sheet compiled by Anita Hyatt Davis of Utah. She lists the following as her sources:

Simsbury, CT, Vital Records

Sharon District Probate Records

Sichern, N. Y. Moravian Church Book

Transactions of the Moravian Hist. Soc., Vol II, 1777-1786

Obits, Moravian Congregation, Gnadenhutten, PA

Land Trans. Simsbury until 1756 Ed. Edmonds..... (possibly she means that is the last land transaction listed in Simsbury and that would be the date they left for New York.)

Other children: According to the Funeral Records, obits of Edmond and Elizabeth, they had 13 children. One reference showed a second
JOHN and a second ZILPAH. Cannot verify at present.

Funeral Records from Gnadenhutten, PA. ....sent to me by Jan Herbert

The 26 of February 1811 was the funeral of the married brother Edmond Emonds, who departed this life the 24 of said month. He was born 14 of March, 1721 at Simsbury Town, State of Connecticut and at Sichern received into the congregation. The 1 of January, 1759 he was admitted to Holy Communion the first time. By his trade he was a miner and dish turner. The 5 of July, 1739 he was married with Elisabeth Godhard and was blessed with 13 children. In the fall of the year 177_____ he moved with his family to Gnadenhutten on the Mahoning, where he lived the most of the time by his trade. About the middle of February he took a severe cold which ramined with him and proved to be a means of his departure on the same mentioned day, aged 89 years 11 months 1 week 3 days. His remains were interred in our burying ground. I. C. Friday.

Other note about early days at Gnadenhutten, PA, on the Mahoning....."The Edmonds and the Warners lived in the barracks at Fort Allen, built by men of the militia, under the command of Benjamin Franklin, until housing could be built. The Warners moved out in January, 1772. Edmonds held the fort until October, 1772. The Davis family moved into the barracks in December, 1772. Sarah wa Henry Davis's wife. Their daughter, Phoebe, married Peter I at Gnadenhutten, Penn, in 1786.

Notes

From an article in the BANNER of Hastings, Michigan, Barry County written about Emeline Walton Peter's last child by his third wife.

Concerning her father, Mrs. Walton furnishes us the following interesting information.....Peter Edmonds was of English descent and was born in Pennsylvania, August 1, 1760 and died in Wayne County, Ohio, August 4, 1854 when 94 years old. He is buried about 3 miles from West Wooster, Ohio, in what is known as the Warner Cemetery. He was married 3 times. His first wife was Phoebe Davis by whom he had two children, David and Nathaniel; his second wife was Elizabeth Warner by whom he had 9 children, Edward, Benjamin, Simon, Elizabeth, Catherine, Rosan and Rebecca. His third wife, mother of Mrs. Walton was Mrs. Marha Anstrew Bechtel, whom he married in 1832. She was born in 1790 and died in 1879.

About 1800 Mr. Edmunds removed to Ohio settling in Tuscarawas county and in 1813 he located a government farm in Wayne County, where he moved in 1814, remaining there until his death. He was a man of wonderful vitality and powerful physique, standing over 6 feet and built in proportion. Mrs. Walton relates an interesting occurrence to show his strength. At one time he happened to be in a narrow fenced-in lane when a deer, closely pursued by dogs appeared before. It attempted to clear the fence but he caught it single handed and killed it on the spot. He was a member of the Moravian church and strictly temperate. Mrs. Walton tells at one time he bought a pipe and after smoking it, he placed it in his pocket supposing it empty, but his clothes were soon discovered afire and he was somewhat burned. Throwing the pipe away, he never smoked again. The only relic in Mrs. Walton's possession which was her father's was a sun glass which was his before the Revolution and which she naturally prizes most highly.

She remembers as of a child of his holding her on his knee and telling her war stories and of the stirring times that followed. His service was as of a private in Capt. William Meyers Company, Sixth battalion, Northampton county militia, Pennsylvania, of which "Nicholas Kern was Colonel. This record is from the Pennsylvania archives and the family also have a copy of the land grant given to him for service in the Revolution.

 Page 402.....1790, March 25th, departed this life happily, the married sister Phebe Edmunds, late Davis. She was born at Oblong Dutchess County in the state of New York, was educated a Quaker, come with her parents to Gnadenhutten, was received into the congregation July 21, 1776. Admitted to Holy Communion March 23, 1780. Was married to the present widower, Peter Edmunds, April 17, 1786, with whom she lived an agreeable and contented life, tho' in great poverty. Her heart was attached to her dear Lord and Saviour; in her last sickness which lasted about 3 weeks, she suffered very much, her longing and desire to be at home with her Lord increased day by day. Brother and Sister Smith visited her several times and blessed her for her departure. She left behind 2 little sons. Her remains were burried in our burring place, during the usual liturgy. She now rests in peace, her age 34 years, 1 month, 6 days.

 From the "HISTORY OF TUSCARAWAS COUNTY, OHIO", Clay Township, page 516 (items about Peter Edmunds)

Paul Greer, PETER EDMONDS, Ezra Warner and Peter Warner, the first permanent white settlers came from Gnadenhutten, on the Mahoning, Pennsylvania, May 29, 1799. They cleared a few acres west of the river, opposite Gnadenhutten.....and all returned to Pennsylvania for their families in the autumn of the same year, except Paul Greer, who remained at Gnadenhutten.....Shortly before July 1800, Peter and Elizabeth Edmunds, with five (?) children and Peter and Grace Warner with 3 children came from the Mahoning, Pennsylvania. The family of Peter Edmonds consisted of David and Daniel (Nathaniel) by his first wife, and Peter, Edward Daniel, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Rosina Bethia, Catherine and Rebecca by his second. (Some of these apparently did not come with them, but were born in Ohio)

The first church of white membership in Tuscarawas County was the Moravian Society of Gnadenhutten, which was formed in 1800.....A garden spot was cleared by Peter Edmonds in December. The church was dedicated December 15, 1805 in the presence of about 200 people and christened Bersheba Church.

From the genealogy of Zephaniah Edmonds by Kemble Stout we find this:

1771.....Peter was 11 years old when the family moved from Sichem to Gnadenhutten, PA near Bethlehem.

1782.....During the Revolutionary War Peter served as a private in Capt. Wm. Myers Co., 6dth Battalion, Northampton Co. Militia, PA, of which Nicholas Kern was Colonel. Service was from April 18, 1782 to May 27, 1782.

1786.....Peter married Phoebe Davis, daughter of Henry and Sarah Davis. The Davis family also members of the United Brethren's congregation, had moved from Sichem, NY, to Gnadenhutten just a year after the Edmond's family.

1790.....Phebe passed away, March 25, 1790

1791.....March 30, 1791, Peter married Elizabeth Warner, daughter of Daniel and Sarah (Smith) Warner.

1800.....Peter and his family, including 5 children, moved to Ohio.

The establishment of a Congregation of the United Brethren in this new location came about following a Congressional act in 1796 which granted 4000 acres to the Society for "propagating the gospel among the heathen". The church book of the Brethren's Congregation at Beersheba on the west side of the Muskingum River, Gnadenhutten, Ohio (Tuscarawas Co.) has many entries about PETER EDMONDS. ( Most are listed above under the church records)

During the early years of the settlement church services were held in various homes of the members. However in June 1804 "the spot for the church on the West side of the river was pitched and cleared". "Got raised in March 1805, the roof laid in August; doors and windows cut out by PETER EDMONDS and Joseph Everit, the chinks filled up by Jonathan Warner in Sept. and Oct.; October 11th and 12th the house was plastered by all our brethren and some others, and a chimney was completed by Br. Nathan Warner Oct. 15. In November logs for the floor were sawed by Mr. Tracy and Daniel Warner and from December 3rd to 6th the floors were laid both in the house and church by the brn Boaz Walton, Jess Walton and Josphe Everit. Windows, doors, stairs, etc., were made by Joseph Winsch of Gnadenhutten. A bake oven was built by Nathan Warner and a garden spot cleared by PETER EDMONDS in December. On December 15th about 9 o'clock in the morning, not only the members of our congregation, but also a great many people, above 200, from both sides of the river met together for to be present at the solemn dedication of the new church, lying a mile distant from Gnadhutten on the West side of the Muskingum River."

"At 2 o'clock p.m. a lovefeast was held by Mr. Mueller and entertained with verses suited to the solemn occasion and with agreeable conversation, which turned upon the first beginnings of the brethren here on Muskingum; namely, the time of the arrival of the brn Heckewelder and Edwards in 1798, of Br and Sr Zeisberger, Br Mortiner and the Indian congregation at Goshen the same year, of Paul Greer, PETER EDMONDS, Sarah Warner and Peter Warner at Gnadenhutten the year following. How wild the country then appeared, what hardships were sustained, and what helps experienced." "On January 2nd, 1806 three brethren were chosen committee members by all the communicants of age and the following viz: PETER EDMONDS, Nathan Warner and Jess Walton had the majority of votes."

1807.....PETER EDMONDS got his new dwelling house raised.

1808-1809.....Tax list for the property listed below. It was in the Zanesville District and the original owner of this particular piece was Jonas Stanbury.

1811,,,,,,Tax list for Salem Township shows Peter living on Range 2, Township 7, Section 4, on 100 acres of land. (In 1808 Tuscarawas Co. was divided into 4 townships, one of which was Salem)

1820.....Census, PETER EDMONDS, still living in Salem Township, Tuscarawas Co.

1821.....Moved to a farm five miles west of Wooster in Wayne Co., Ohio

1825.....Peter's name on tax list for Wayne Co., Ohio

1830.....As head of family in Plain Township, Wayne Co., Ohio

1830.....Jan. 24, 1830, 2nd wife, Elizabeth Warner, died and was buried in the Warner Family Cemetery just West of Wooster.

1832.....October 2, 1832, Peter remarries to Martha (Anstrew) Bechtel, widow of Martin Bechtel.

1833.....Daughter Emeline born

1840.....Wayne Co., census shows 4 other children besides Emeline which are probably the children of Martha from her first marriage.

1854.....Peter dies, July 30, 2 days before his 94th birthday. Buried at Warner Cemetery.

Obituary carried by the Wooster Republican on August 10, 1854....."July 31st, 1854, at his residence 6 miles west of Wooster, Mr. PETER EDMONDS, aged upwards of 94 years. The deceased was born 1760 near Albany, New York, and emigrated to Penn. when 8 years (?) of age, from thence he moved to Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, and came to Wayne Co., some 32 years ago. Mr. E. was an excellent man and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He united when a young man with the Moravian Church. The deceased was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and engaged in the Frontier Service. New Philadelphia papers, please copy. WJS"

When Peter's estate was settled, legal papers now on file at the Wayne County Courthouse, named his 12 children (not counting John) and his four sons-in-law. Nathaniel's name was given even though he was deceased.

In 1771, October, when Peter was 11 years old, Edmund moved his family from Sichem to Gnadenhutton "on the Mahoning" in Pennsylvania. "Mahony" was an Indian term signifying a "deer lick", that is a place where salty or brackish water issues from the earth. The Moravian Brethren had purchased a tract of land beyond the Blue Mountains from Bethelhem, PA at the junction of the Lehigh River. This move was nearly 200 miles. The Edmond Edmonds family lived here for one year occupying the barracks of Fort Allen, where the Daniel Warner family was also living. They had preceded the Edmond Edmonds from Sichem, so they were old neighbors. Fort Allen was built to provide a place of refuge for the early settlers, in case of further Indian attacks, but had been abandoned by the militia by the time of the migration of the Warners, Edmonds, and Davises to Gnadenhutton, PA.

Note on Peter's military service: Peter was a private in Capt. Wm. Meyers Com., 6th Battelion, Northampton Co., Militia of PA. Since he was a Moravian (who were against bearing arms) it is a matter of speculation as to how Peter happened to serve. Perhaps he was pressed into service, the alternative being some form of persecution by the other frontier revolutionists. It is known that the Warners suffered persecution for refusing to serve. Neutrality was not allowed, on the theory that "if you're not for me, you're against me". On the other hand, it could be that Peter at that time was not too strongly bound by religious tenets. (However, his term in the militia was late, 1782, and short, only about a month).

1790 Census lists Peter with 2 boys under 16 years of age and a wife, prob. Phebe, David & Nath.

The Moravian Church when they received 4000 acres in Tuscarawas Co., Ohio, then in turn rented out parcels of 100 to 150 acres. The rental was to be used for maintaining the Indian Mission on the same site. This was a trip of 500 miles from PA to Tuscarawas, Ohio.

By 1813 it was obvious that the Mission was a failure, although it might also be that Peter was converted to Methodism about this time. It is known that Nathaniel Warner, Peter's brother-in-law changed to Methodism under the influence of David Smith. Peter's son, Nathaniel, married a dau. of David Smith who was a Methodist from New York State; most of them being zealous Methodists and they were very active in persuading others to join them. This family of David Smith arrived in Gnadenhutton in 1809 with 4 other families.

After the failure of the mission, Peter, for his military service during the Rev. War, took an option on the government land in Wayne County, Ohio, on which is now Highway 250 west of the present town of Jefferson. The site is on a hill just west of where the road going to Lattasburg branches off to the north. Going west, it is on the lefthand side of the road. Here, Peter lived for the next 40 years.
